Lorane on doorstep of
Peta Luma home, 1929

Peta Luma home in WN was a place they did not spend much time at; always traveling between CA and WN. The family lived in tents or shacks when money was scarce.

Lorane was quite a dreamer. She had many talents by the time she graduated Cle Elum high school; artist, star athlete, and gorgeous.

Lorane Joyce Eaton looked like Veronica Lake; known as Cindy the Blonde Bomber, a cartoon popular during WWII; played basketball in Cle Elum high school, WN; boys team won state championship; voted best girl athlete for volleyball (on boy/girl team).

Lorane Joyce Eaton & Valla Isobel Brown

Valla Isobel Brown & Lorane Joyce Eaton

Sister: Valla Isobel Brown born Pataluma, CA Aug 1 1928. Valla Isobel Brown's 1st husband was Robert Mataya.

Story by David Boje – I remember Val's gas house eggs. She taught me how to make them. You take a piece of bread, and in the center turn the edge of a glass to make a hole. In the hole in the bread crack and egg, and let the yoke lie there; then cook and flip in a hot pan of butter. The last time I saw Valla she was puffing on a marijuana joint with Ron; that was just before she passed away.
